The above rates are charged twice a year, first in May and second in November to coincide with financial aid distribution.