

Directions for Fiscal Appeals

Appeals will be reviewed by a panel made up of several university offices. It will be examined for extenuating circumstances. What defines an extenuating circumstance is variable per student, however it is typically an event or situation that the student has no control over and has affected their school performance and/or attendance.

- Rules:
 - Only one Fiscal Appeal is allowed to be submitted per student during their TAMU career.
 - For tuition refunds, the Panel will only review semesters within one year of the current semester.
 - All decisions made by the Panel are final and not subject to further appeal to any other office.
- Typical circumstances the panel has reviewed:
 - Hospitalization of the student
 - Death or major illness of an immediate family member (parents, siblings, children)
 - Chronic conditions that cause poor performance
 - Major life changing events beyond the control of the student
- Circumstances not accepted by the panel:
 - Change of major
 - Not knowing or understanding university rules and regulations
 - Poor performance in difficult classes
 - Taking on optional responsibilities (jobs, internships, extra courses, etc.)

Common Appeals:

- Student has exceeded the excess hours limit and is being charged the unfunded tuition rate.
 - Student must meet with Registrar's Office to review hours prior to filing an appeal.
- Student has withdrawn past the first day of class and is requesting a tuition refund.
- Student has failed to meet Satisfactory Academic Progress.
 - If due to grade point ratio, contact Financial Aid for their appeal process;

Information needed in your appeal:

- Explanation of situation:
